Wayne Bank Teaches Roscoe Central School Students Financial Skills

Roscoe, NY – Students from the Roscoe Central School District recently visited Wayne Bank’s newly relocated Roscoe Community Office for a tour and presentation on financial skills.

Roscoe Community Office Manager, Christine Routledge, talked to the students in Ms. Semerano’s College Prep class about topics including the various accounts Wayne Bank offers, the requirements for maintaining a bank account, and how interest works. The students also received a tour of the new Community Office, including a visit to the vault to learn about safe deposit boxes.

“I am so happy that the College Prep class was able to visit our new office and participate in this program,” said Mrs. Routledge. “I hope that the topics covered will be beneficial to the students as they prepare for college and the next phase of their lives.”

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 26 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, and Lackawanna Counties in Pennsylvania, along with

Delaware and Sullivan Counties in New York State. The stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol— NWFL.
