Wayne Bank Celebrates New Hanover Township Community Office With Ribbon Cutting

Hanover Twp., PA – Wayne Bank recently held a ribbon cutting ceremony at its new Hanover Township Community Office, on June 26.

Community leaders, representatives from local businesses, and members of Wayne Bank’s Board of Directors and executive management team attended the event to celebrate the new location.

“We are so pleased to officially open our new Hanover Township Community Office,” stated Lewis J. Critelli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank. “This marks our entry into the Luzerne County market and we are truly excited to bring the Wayne Bank brand of highly personalized service and sound financial solutions to the local businesses, organizations, and residents of Hanover Township and the surrounding areas.”

In April of this year, Wayne Bank expanded into Luzerne County with its first Community Office located at 734 Sans Souci Parkway in Hanover Township. The full-service office houses both retail banking and commercial lending professionals, offering Wayne Bank’s complete line of products and services for consumers and businesses. In addition to ample parking, the new location also offers drive-up banking and ATM facilities.

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, Equal Housing Lender, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 26 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, Lackawanna Counties, and Luzerne Counties in Pennsylvania, along with Delaware and Sullivan Counties in New York State. The stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol— NWFL.
